Hi Remy,

Would you be open connect?

I facilitate 3 things if it's of value to you.

1. Commercial introductions to potential clients/partners
2. Building CEO networks
3. Staff augmentation and workforce optimisation

Anything I can do to help at the moment?

Remy Zambarakji • 4:51 PM
Hi James, I am very interested to get investors into Syria, I believe the moment is now and should move forward, what type of industries do you handle for commercial introductions.

Hello Remy,I just got back from Sardinia. I tried calling you today but What’s working well?

- Big announcements, of recent investment developments perform strongly
- Hooks with specific numbers/dates consistently attract the most attention
- The Syria reconstruction narrative is resonating well with the target
- Moved the posting slot to the evening, and it's performing better.

What’s we are doing next?

- Test more recent news-driven posts tied to real market developments
- Carousels generally don’t perform well; we will try to repurpose them into posts later
- Publish more opinion-based posts to highlight unique industry perspectives
- Explore personal/past experience-related content if possible
- Keep connecting with relevant industry professionals to grow reach

THANK YOU
